BREWERY as Licensee and LAUREN R. PACINI, dba ARTOGRAPHY STUDIOS as the licensor. You are not required to agree to the terms of this Royalty Free License, but you may not use images and/or photographic work obtained from ARTOGRAPHY STUDIOS without agreeing to the terms of this Royalty Free License, and remittance of a royalty-free license fee in the amount of $75 per digital image file.

1. Grant of License

ARTOGRAPHY STUDIOS grants Licensee a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sub licensable worldwide, perpetual right to use photographs and/or other visual works for which Licensee has paid license fees as required by ARTOGRAPHY STUDIOS ("Licensed Content"). The license granted herein is subject to the terms of this Agreement, including but not limited to the Restrictions on Use provided in this Agreement. This Agreement is a license, not an agreement of sale, and Licensee obtains no ownership rights in the Licensed Content. License fees are non refundable.

2. Permitted Uses

Licensee may distribute the Licensed Content: (i) as incorporated into other works, including but not limited to web pages, advertisements, magazine and newspaper articles, reports, brochures, books, newsletters, multimedia applications and presentations, product packaging, films, documentaries, television productions, commercials, and training and industrial videos (collectively "Works for Distribution"); or (ii) for the creation of derivative works, provided that such derivative works are distributed only as incorporated into Works for Distribution. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Licensee may not use Licensed Content in any manner prohibited by the Restrictions on Use section, below.

3. Restrictions on Use

Licensee shall not sub-license, sell, assign, convey or transfer Licensed Content except as part of a Work for Distribution. Nor shall Licensee use licensed content to produce decorative wall art. Use of Licensed Content to produce decorative wall art is subject to a different license fee and is governed by the terms of a Royalty-Based License.
